~ We welcome all who worship with us today ~

Prayer Needs:

- God's continued provision for our denomination.
- For the repentance and full restoration of those who have been placed under the first step of church discipline.
- Those sorrowing the loss of loved ones, those with afflictions of the body, mind and spirit, the lonely, elderly, widowers and widows in our midst.
- Godly wisdom for our president and all our nation's leaders, and revival of His work in our land
- Thanksgiving for improved weather conditions; pray for safety for our farmers.
- As in the days of Pentecost may we be given the mighty work of the Holy Spirit in our midst, drawing and adding into "the church daily such as should be saved" (Acts 2:47b)

"For the promise is unto you, and to your children, and to all that are afar off, even as many as the Lord our God shall call." Acts 2:39

St John says:
"Every one that doeth righteousness is born of Him."
1 John 2:29

The regenerate man is a holy man. He endeavours to live according to God's will, to do the things that please God, to avoid the things that God hates. His aim and desire is to love God with heart and soul and mind and strength, and to love his neighbor as himself. His wish is to be continually looking to Christ as his example as well as his Saviour, and to show himself Christ's friend by doing whatsoever Christ commands. No doubt he is not perfect. None will tell you that sooner than himself. He groans under the burden of indwelling corruption cleaving to him. He finds an evil principle within him constantly warring against grace, and trying to draw him away from God. But he does not consent to it, though he cannot prevent its presence. In spite of all short-comings, the average bent and bias of his ways is holy, -his doings holy, -his tastes holy, - and his habits holy. In spite of all his swerving and turning aside, like a ship beating up against a contrary wind, the general course of his life is in one direction, - toward God and for God. And though he may sometimes feel so low that he questions whether he is a Christian at all, in his calmer moments he will generally be able to say, with old John Newton, "I am not what I ought to be, I am not what I want to be, I am not what I hope to be in another world, but still I am not what I once used to be, and by the grace of God I am what I am." Reader, I place this mark also before you. What would the Apostle say about you? Are you born of God? ~ JC Ryle
