Family Sermon Discussion Questions:

- 1*. What words were the Gentile referring to when they asked Paul to preach them again on the following Sabbath?
2. What can we learn from the fact that Paul & Barnabas (repeatedly!) persuaded them "to continue in the grace of God"? (v. 43b).
3. What is meant by "continuing in the grace of God"?
4. Why did the Jews blaspheme and contradict the preaching of Paul?
5. What do we learn from Paul & Barnabas telling these hostile Jews that they were judging themselves "unworthy of everlasting life"?
6. Why did the Gentiles believe the word of the Lord? (v. 48)
7. What vital connection is there between the decree of election and the word of the Lord being published throughout the region?
- 8*. What did Paul & Barnabas do when the Jews persecuted them chased them out of their region? Why did they do that?

Family Sermon Discussion Questions:

- 1*. How was God's creation of man completely different from everything else He created?
2. What connection is there between Adam being God's son and God's eternal and only-begotten Son?
3. How did God equip man to serve Him, and thus find his life in the God who created him?
4. Why did Satan use Eve to get to Adam?
- 5*. How was Adam & Eve's eating of the forbidden truth a transgression of the entire law (= love God & your neighbor)?
6. Why was death the fitting punishment for Adam's breach of his covenant relationship with God?
7. Why does spiritual death produce the stench of radical depravity?
8. What does the Belgic Confession mean when it says that man has "only retained a few remains" of God's excellent gifts?
