Family Sermon Discussion Questions:

1. What important conclusion can we draw from the fact that God speaks directly in the book of Leviticus more than any other book of the Bible?

2*. What are the five different offerings described in Leviticus 1-9?

3. Why are the five offerings of Leviticus 1-9 designated as “approach offerings”?

4. What significant truth do we learn from the fact that these offerings were to be brought unto the LORD?

5. Why is Christ's perfect sacrifice so supremely delightful to His Father?

6*. What did the 12-year old Jesus mean when He said to His parents, “Wist ye not that I must be about my Father's business?”

7. How can a sinner be acceptable in the sight of a holy God?

8. Why is the Israelite's laying his hand on the sacrifice an illustration of the act of saving faith?
