The Four "T's"

There are four "T's" too apt to run,
Tis' best to set a watch upon.

O watch your Thoughts, they ramble oft,
They run aground; they soar aloft;
Oft when alone, they take them wings,
And light upon forbidden things.

Your Temper watch, if one you have,
Think well, speak slow, if strife you'd save;
An angry word, a temper lost;
No tongue can tell how great the cost,

O watch your Tongue, for many tell
Of slips they've had - O learn it well;
Know when to speak, and be content
When silence is most eloquent.

O watch your Time, my little maid,
Life with its years will soon have fled.
Yea, like the sand runs through the glass,
The moments fly - "All flesh is grass."

If ye who read would watch each "T",
The God of Truth must strengthen thee.

"How amiable are thy tabernacles, O LORD of hosts! Blessed are they that dwell in thy house: they will be still praising thee. Selah." Psalm 84:1&5
