Note: Dear friends, a week ago we arrived in Michigan to spend time with family, attend a ministry conference & work remotely. A few days ago, plans were quickly made for Jason to go to South America for 10 days to join another team member working with the South America program to accomplish some paperwork for the process of registering our airplanes. It has been incredible to see the pieces come together, some of them affected by relationships that started decades ago. It continues to look more likely that the airplanes will be able to return to Central Asia soon. We're excited for this possibility as we see God leading our family in the direction of going back overseas. Continue to pray for this process & the people of Central Asia as there are many difficulties they are facing. -Jason & Hannah

“Beloved, let us love one another: for love is of God; and every one that loveth is born of God, and knoweth God.” I John 5:7

“Love is of God.” I can have no satisfaction, real satisfaction, that I am a partaker of the Spirit and grace of Christ except I feel some measure of the love of God shed abroad in my heart. I may have hopes, expectations, and evidences, fainter or brighter; but I have no sure, clear evidence in my own soul that I have the Spirit and grace of Christ there, except I am blessed with the love of God; for until love comes, there is fear which hath torment. And whilst we have fear which hath torment, there is no being made perfect in love. You have no clear assurance in your own breast that God has loved you with an everlasting love; nor have you any bright testimony that the Spirit of God makes your body his temple until this love comes into your soul. But when the crowning blessing comes of the love of God experimentally felt and enjoyed by his own shedding of it abroad in the heart, with the communication of the Spirit of adoption to cry “Abba, Father,” that is the sealing testimony of your possession of the true spirit; for it is “a spirit of power, and of love, and of a sound mind;” and where there is this, there is also a spirit of love and affection to all the family of God.
